

ASIAN LIBERTY FORUM

PATHWAYS TO LIBERTY AND FREE MARKETS IN ASIA

Monday, September 11, 2006
Corus Hotel, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

WHAT: Atlas's 3rd Annual Asia Liberty Forum

Topics include:

- Promoting Ideas in Challenging Environments
- Impediments to Freedom
- Planning for Think Tank Success
- Communication Strategies

Speakers include:

- Charu Rizal, The Boss Magazine (Nepal)
- Kris Mauren, Acton Institute (Michigan)
- Andrew Work, Lion Rock Institute (Hong Kong)
- Ozlem Caglar Yilmaz, Association for Liberal Thinking (Turkey)

WHERE: Corus Hotel, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia (www.corushotelkl.com)

WHEN: September 11, 2006 (with a welcome dinner on the evening of September 10th)

WHAT ELSE?: The Asia Liberty Forum will be followed by the annual Economic Freedom Network conference organized by the Friedrich Naumann Foundation on September 12-13th at the Corus Hotel. There will be separate registration for this event.

BOOKING FLIGHTS: Fares to Malaysia are rising, so book your tickets early. If you would like to attend Atlas's Asian Liberty Forum and FNF's Economic Freedom Network meeting, plan on arriving in Kuala Lumpur on the afternoon of September 10th and leaving on the morning of September 14th.

FOR MORE INFORMATION: For more information about the conference and to register, please contact Atlas's Director of Coalition Relations Colleen Dyble at colleen.dyble@atlasusa.org or look for more information on the Atlas website, www.atlasUSA.org, in the coming weeks.